Re: Freedom of Information Request FOI 4140

We are writing in response to your request submitted under the Freedom of Information Act, received in this office on 29th November 2019.

Your request was as follows:

1. The normal range for ALT, AST, and Alkaline phosphatase that your hospital uses for your adult patients (male and female).

I can confirm in accordance with Section 1 (1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA) that we do not collate information regarding ALT, AST, and Alkaline phosphatase testing as this is completed by Liverpool Clinical Laboratories for The Walton Centre Foundation Trust (WCFT). Under the FOI Act, we are not required to create this information in order to answer your request. I should explain that the FOI Act is to do with transparency of information held by public authorities. It gives an individual the right to access recorded information held by public authorities. The FOI Act does not require public authorities to generate information, or to answer questions, provide explanations or give opinions, unless this is recorded information that they already hold.

2. The method used - reference and temperature, or some means for us to identify the methods used (e.g. machine name and reference to the kit used).

N/A

3. How was your local normal range for each liver function test determined? And do you know the date (year) when these were last revised?

N/A

4. How many measurements of for each of ALT, AST, and alkaline phosphatase does your laboratory undertake each year?

N/A

5. How many patients does this represent?

N/A

6. How many or what % of ALT measurements exceed your upper limit of normal. How many or what % of ALT measurements are ≥ 20 U/L for women, and ≥ 31 U/L for men

N/A

Please see our response above in blue.

Re-Use of Public Sector Information

All information supplied by the Trust in answering a request for information (RFI) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 will be subject to the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005, Statutory Instrument 2005 No. 1515 which came into effect on 1st July 2005.

Under the terms of the Regulations, the Trust will licence the re-use of any or all information supplied if being used in a form and for the purpose other than which it was originally supplied. This license for re-use will be in line with the requirements of the Regulations and the licensing terms and fees as laid down by the Office of Public Sector Information (OPSI). Most licenses will be free; however the Trust reserves the right, in certain circumstances, to charge a fee for the re-use of some information which it deems to be of commercial value.

Further information can be found at www.opsi.gov.uk where a sample license terms and fees can be found with guidance on copyright and publishing notes and a Guide to Best Practice and regulated advice and case studies, at www.opsi.gov.uk/advice/psi-regulations/index.htm

If you are dissatisfied with the handling of your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Internal review requests should be submitted within two months of the date of receipt of the response to your original letter and should be addressed to the Freedom of Information Office at the address above.

Please remember to quote the reference number, FOI 4140 in any future communications.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at: Information Commissioners Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Yours sincerely

Mike Burns
